

Nomination For Awards

The American Society for Clinical Nutrition, Inc.

The American Society for Clinical Nutrition, Inc. is pleased to invite nominations for awards of the society. Nominees need not be members of the society and nominations can be made by anyone. Forms are available from the society office, ASCN, 9650 Rockville Pike, Bethesda, MD 20814. The deadline for receipt of nominations for awards to be given in 1991 is November 15, 1990.

The McCullum Award is given each year to a clinical investigator generally perceived as currently a major creative force, actively generating new concepts in nutrition, and personally seeing to the execution of studies testing the validity of these concepts. A cash award and inscribed plaque are provided by the National Dairy Council.

The Robert H. Herman Memorial Award is given each year to a clinical investigator whose research work has contributed importantly to the advancement of clinical nutrition in areas particularly involving the biochemical and metabolic aspects of human nutrition. A cash award and inscribed plaque are provided by the Robert H. Herman Memorial Fund established by the society and Mrs. Yaye Tokuyama Herman.

The NATIONAL DAIRY COUNCIL Award for Excellence in Medical/Dental Nutrition Education is to be presented in recognition of an outstanding career in medical/dental nutrition education. This award is being presented for the first time at the 1991 annual meeting of the society. The nominee's efforts should be widely recognized and have had a national or international impact. Nomination will depend on acknowledged excellence in nutrition teaching or nutrition education research that extends beyond the local institution and that includes innovations in medical/dental education. A cash award and inscribed plaque are provided by the National Dairy Council.